RE: EDWARD MCGILL V. POLICE OFFICER THOMAS LICIARDELLO, ET AL.
CIVIL ACTION NO. 12-5690

Dear Judge Diamond:

As your Honor is aware, I represent the plaintiff, Edward McGill in the above-captioned matter. Mr. McGill's underlying criminal charges were pending at the time I filed Mr. McGill's Complaint in federal court. Therefore, your Honor issued an Order on October 23, 2012 and ruled that this matter is currently "stayed...pending resolution of the underlying criminal case."

Now, however, Mr. McGill's underlying criminal case in Philadelphia County at CP-51-CR-0015609-2010 is resolved. Specifically, on January 14, 2013 the District Attorney's Office Nolle Prossed all of Mr. McGill's charges.

Based on the aforesaid, I respectfully request that your Honor lift the stay in this matter.

In addition, subsequent to filing Mr. McGill's Complaint I learned of information which I believe will support a successful Monell claim in this matter. Therefore, I expect to draft a Motion to Amend Plaintiff's Complaint no later than February 1, 2013.

Lastly, I have advised the assigned defense counsel, Armando Brigandi, Esquire of the aforesaid during a telephone conversation a few moments ago.

Judge, United States District Court
